

3 DREAM FOLLOWERS

Julie Watts, 2013
Photography on Steel Plates
CITY HALL | 5411 23RD ST E

Individual portraits were chosen via social media and in person at Chamber of Commerce events. Selected for their passion, drive focus and unparalleled vision toward achieving a particular goal. They all have uncommon dedication.

4 VALLEY ROUNDELAY

Lisa Kinoshita, 2013
Resin and Mixed Media
CITY HALL | 5411 23RD ST E

This artwork is an homage to the rich agricultural history of Fife and the immigrants who settled here. It is an architectural study inspired by the traditional American barn.

5 OPULENCE

Savy Jane, 2013
Mural
CITY HALL | 5411 23RD ST E

This mural represents Fife as a historical farming town but is also a city of growth and progress. The colors are all different-bright and full of life to represent happiness, to show that the city is diverse and bountiful.

1 THE THRONE

Nicky Falkenhayn, 2013
Co-Ten Steel and Stacked Glass
FOUNTAIN MEMORIAL PARK | 2001 54TH AVENUE

The Throne is a royal seat to celebrate the meeting point of water, sky and earth. With seats in three different sizes, it invites children and adults alike to sit down, relax and use it as a photo opportunity.

2 WHISPERING BIRD

Marion-Lea Jamieson, 2013
Steel with Sealed Rust Patina
FIFE PIERCE COUNTY LIBRARY | 6622 20TH STREET EAST

Whispering Bird is one in a series of sculptures by Marion-Lea Jamieson that are rooted in myths about animals. Whispering Bird is about stories lost and the creation of new stories through art.

HISTORICAL SITES

Fife's history begins well before its inception in 1957.

- A Fife Memorial Fountain Like the industrious agrarian community it once served, this beloved area landmark had both practical and decorative use.
- B Historical Monument #92 This 1929 stone monument acknowledges the generosity and critical influence of two Puyallup Tribal leaders in our community's early history.
- C First Commercial Bulb Farm When George Lawler planted 2,000 bulbs on 5 muddy acres, he inspired an industry and a famous local spring parade!
- D Dacca Barn Celebrations and events are booked in farmer and civic leader Louis Dacca's former barn and anchor adjacent Dacca Field and Fife History Museum.
- E Poodle Dog Restaurant There was no City Hall in 1957 when Fife's City Council conducted city business in this iconic local diner.
